

Opening Doors

to Collaboration in the Community

Needs for Making Collaborations Possible

Community Involvement:

Engage more newcomers in conversations and decisions.

Strategic Partnerships:

Collaborate with local government members, 2SLGBTQIA+ groups and minority groups.

Information Accessibility:

Utilize tools like QR codes, one-stop apps, and kiosks at airports.

Cultural Sensitivity:

Incorporate Indigenous learnings in welcome packages and events.

Communication Strategies:

Timely information delivery and island-wide newcomer service provider newsletters.

Post-Secondary Collaborations:

Strengthen collaboration with post-secondary schools for better services.

Diversity & Inclusion Training:

Implement EDI training for all organizations involved.

Awareness & Visibility:

Increase visibility of services and cultural awareness through festivals.

Ideas for New Collaborative Efforts

Funding & Support:

Clone successful models, more financial resources.

Improved Communication:

Transparent, open, and honest communication.

Inclusive Approaches:

Multicultural committees, Indigenous involvement.

Innovation in Services:

QR codes, one-stop apps, and community awareness.

Student & Ethno-Cultural Collaborations:

Collaborate with student associations and support new ethno-cultural groups.

Shared Vision, Commitment & Trust:

Foster a shared vision, commitment, and trust among collaborators.

Innovative Apps & Technology:

Explore technology for innovative collaboration tools.

Community Dialogues & Inter-Agency Conversations:

Engage in dialogues to identify priorities and promote inter-agency collaboration.

Successful Collaborations

Government Engagement:

Engage more newcomers in conversations and decisions.

Employer & Service Provider Partnership:

Collaboration between settlement-service providers and employers.

Community Events:

Surveys, workshops, storytelling, and festivals.

Sector Collaboration:

Libraries, CBICI, Welcome Network, and more.

Key Takeaways:

Success Stories & Best Practices:

Highlight specific successful collaborations as models for others.

Call to Action:

Encourage continued dialogue, involvement, and collaboration.

Contact Information:

Provide relevant contact details for further inquiries and participation.